

Community Pharmacy
HUMBER

Community Pharmacy Humber have organised
Practical Training for Vaccinations for Pharmacists and Technicians

Saturday 27th June 2026

Venue: The Boardroom, Cottingham Parks Golf and Leisure Club

Morning session will run from 9am until 1pm

This course is ideal for individuals new to vaccinations or those needing a refresher.

It covers all essential practical skills required to vaccinate both adults and children (ages 2+).

What's Included:	Key skills covered:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ 3.5-hours of hands-on practical training✓ Access to an Online theory module for in-depth understanding	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• IM & SC injection techniques• Vaccine reconstitution• Intranasal vaccination• CPR & anaphylaxis management• Adrenaline administration (for both adults and children)

Price per delegate: £150.00

An invoice will be sent to the email address on the booking form which must be paid prior to the training.

An Online pre-event training course will be provided to new vaccinators, which covers the Foundations of immunisation; This MUST be completed before the event.

Please book via the link below, you will then receive an invoice for the training.

Once payment for the training has been made, you will receive a link to the online pre-event training course, which MUST be completed before the practical session.

You will not receive the online training information until you have paid in full.

PLACES LIMITED PLEASE BOOK ASAP

Click here to book your place/s